

With 6,200 employees in research, teaching and administration and its unique profile, TU Dortmund University shapes prospects for the future: the interaction between engineering and natural sciences as well as social and cultural studies drives both technological innovations and progress in knowledge and methodology. It is not only the roughly 34,500 students who benefit from this.

The Faculty of Arts and Sports Sciences at TU Dortmund University is seeking to fill the position of a commencing as soon as possible. The successful candidate will specialize in research and teaching in the field of “Sports Psychology”.

Professor (W2) in “Sports Psychology”

TU Dortmund University is seeking an outstanding individual and well established researcher in the field of “Sports Psychology” with relevant international publications in recognized journals, including those with peer-review. A focus on social psychological or pedagogical and psychological research in school sport research is a pre-requisite.

Applicants should complement the research activities of the Faculty of Arts and Sports Sciences, in particular of the Dortmund Centre of Physical Education Research and School Sport Research and contribute to interdisciplinary collaborative research projects within and outside TU Dortmund University.

Experience in raising third-party funds is expected.

An appropriate contribution to the faculty’s curriculum - in the long term also in German language - is expected.

The successful candidate will possess social and leadership skills and be willing to be involved in academic self-governance.

Preconditions for employment are specified in § 36 and § 37 Hochschulgesetz NRW (law governing universities in NRW).

TU Dortmund University strives to increase the number of women in academic research and teaching and therefore explicitly encourages women to apply.

TU Dortmund University is an equal opportunity employer and gives preference to candidates with disabilities if equally qualified.

TU Dortmund University supports the compatibility of work and family life and promotes gender equality in science.
