

We are one of the youngest universities in Germany and think in terms of unlimited possibilities instead of possible limitations. Located in the heart of the Ruhr Metropolis, our 11 faculties develop ideas with a future. We are strong on research and teaching, we embrace diversity, promote academic potential and we engage in genuine educational equality

At the University of Duisburg-Essen in the Faculty of Chemistry the following vacancy can be filled at the earliest possible point in time:

University professorship for “Organic Chemistry”
(Bes.-Gr. W 3 LBesO W)

Candidates should present excellent work of international visibility on modern fields of Organic Chemistry. We would especially welcome contributions in Supramolecular Chemistry or Bioorganic Chemistry. Active participation in the Collaborative Research Centre 1093 “Supramolecular Chemistry on Proteins” or other research consortia of the Faculty of Chemistry is highly desired. Teaching of Organic Chemistry in full width and willingness to participate in academic self-administration is expected.

Publications in high-ranking, peer-reviewed publication organs are expected as well as experience adequate to the offered position in the implementation of self-acquired, competitive third-party funded projects, preferably DFG-funded projects.

The University of Duisburg-Essen places great emphasis on excellence in teaching. Candidates must present their teaching concepts, showing their relevance to the research profile of the University of Duisburg-Essen.

The hiring requirements comply with § 36 of the Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (HG).

The University of Duisburg-Essen promotes the diversity of its members (<https://www.uni-due.de/diversity>). It strives to increase the percentage of women in its academic staff and therefore emphatically invites qualified women to apply. In the case of equal qualifications, female candidates will be considered with preference (Equal Opportunities Act). As per § 2 Sect. 3 SGB IX, applications by candidates with a disability or equivalent status are especially welcome.

Applications with the usual documents (CV, list of publications, documentation of academic and professional development, copies of relevant documents and certificates, an exposé of the applicant’s research profile with reference to its relevance for the University of Duisburg-Essen, a list of successful external grant applications, a list of courses taught and a teaching philosophy, an enumeration of experience in academic self-administration) should be sent by June 15th 2020 at the latest to the Dean of the Faculty of Chemistry :
